About Xi'an

Xi'an is the capital of Shaanxi province in China. One of the oldest cities in China, Xi'an is the oldest of the Four Great Ancient Capitals, there are more than 13 important dynasties keeping their capital here. There are many historical relics in Xi'an, such as Terra-Cotta Warriors, Big Wild Goose Pagoda, Small Wild Goose Pagoda, Hua-Qing Palace, and the Bell Tower and Drum Tower, Dajie areas and Xiao Zhai, the busiest commercial area is in the southern part of the city. Xi'an is also famous for its quantity of colleges throughout China. Xi'an is the most important city in northwest China, and so there are a lot of shopping outlets for locals and tourists alike. The night life in Xi'an has a unique glamour, taking part in a Tang Dynasty Dinner Show, strolling on the ancient Big Wild Goose Pagoda Square and watching the music fountain performance. All in all, any experience in this ancient city will bring you fun and possibly a little surprise!
